ABBOT ACADEMY
ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS

We, the Class of 1938, affectionately dedicate our Yearbook to MADAME CRAIG, whose infectious sparkle and unfailing interest and enthusiasm have enlivened our Abbot days;
and to MISS BUTTERFIELD, whose sweet charm and understanding we shall never forget.

MARIE DE LA NIÉPCE CRAIG

FLORENCE BUTTERFIELD

On learning belatedly of the death of a beloved teacher

REBEKAH MUNROE CHICKERING

You caught your breath at beauty.
Across long years I see
You pause to smile at wind-carved clouds;
Your voice drifts back to me
Quoting some lovely lyric line
Of verse I had not known,
But that it stirring you, stirred me
And thenceforth was my own.

You made no cult of beauty.
Quite human things you did,
Endearing you to us the more.
We chortled when you slid
Your textbooks down the laundry chute,
Pronged cucumber in tea,
Unnoticing, and dreaming, walked
Against a startled tree.

You gave me zest for beauty.
Now in gull-flight or star,
In the churned wake of lunging ship,
In firelight you are
Revealed to me — in chapel bells,
In meadow-scent and snow. . . .
You must have come into your own
At last, who loved it so!

—Graduate of 1915

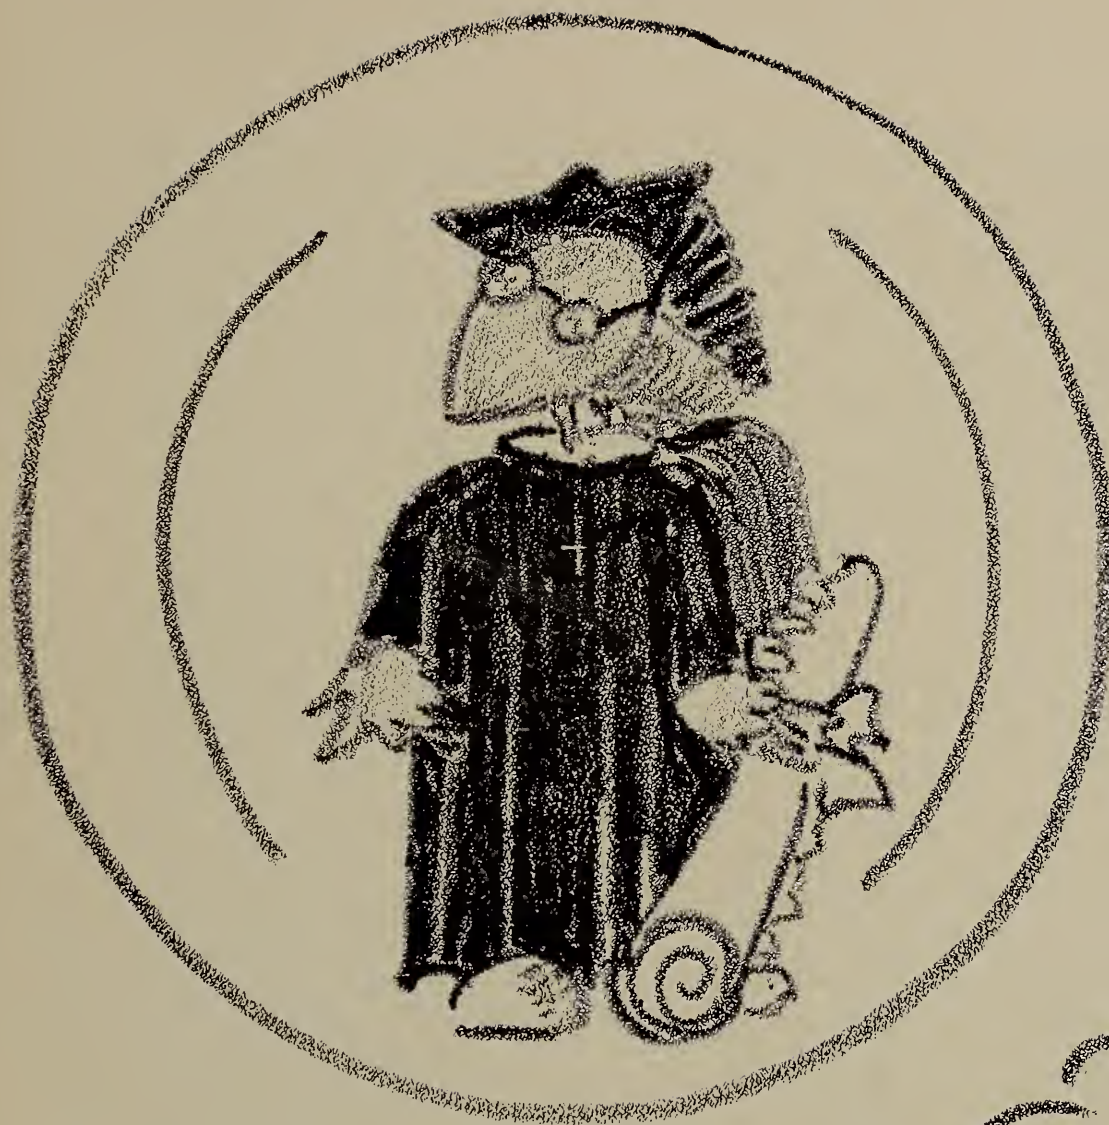

TO MISS CHICKERING

She followed the deepest streams to their sources and cautiously forded the intervening shallows, modestly dropping along the way bright gems from her endless store of treasure.

ABBOT BEAUTIFUL

உருது

To Miss Hearsey

You are leading us
On paths of Beauty, Light, and Truth;
With your strength and knowledge,
Helping us to build our youth;
And so when we leave you,
Miss Hearsey, to you
We will always be true.

CLASS SONG

The Class of '38 is marching on,
And ever singing as we go along,
To future life that waits us every one,
A life that should be worthy when it is done;
So helped and aided by this school of ours
To strengthen all our talents and our powers,
We bravely face our future and our fate,
We are the Class of '38.

ODE TO FRANCES' IMMORTALITY

Above you see the third of three,
Lady Crassmore, the other one of we
Who, thru the strife of our school life,
Have found we needed a young wife
To mend, keep still, amuse us, too,
When Other Things we could not do...
She helped The Floating Five along
When nothing else could stop the gong...
To her we raise our glass, and cheer—
And though 'tis near the end of year,—
We are not sad, because we know
She'll follow us, where'er we go.

Ring Song

The Senior Ring's the turning point
Of all our Abbot days,
We've almost spent our time at school
To part on other ways.

Our Alma Mater soon we'll leave
In different groups we'll be,
A memory chest we'll keep in mind,
A ring will be the key.

This little ring with letters two
Inscribed thereon in gold—
What retrospective happiness
This little ring will hold!

—Elise Duncan

Tree Song

From this familiar earth we Seniors lift a clod,
And here with reverent hands plant deep within the sod
A slender, silver birch tree, symbolic of the ties
Which we have made at Abbot, here, beneath New England skies.
Its roots, entwined, will firmly fold a memory in each heart,
That never will be broken — though we are far apart.
It stands exposed to winter's storms and summer's gentle rain,
Its golden leaves will drift in fall, but come back once again
With glorious approach of spring and, blooming, thrive anew,
So leaving now we plant this birch, — our loyal love for you.

—Jeanne Sawyer

Class History

Long years ago we entered
Through the Abbot Gate
To gain some further knowledge
To face our future fate.

We gazed in wide-eyed wonder
At mighty Seniors tall,
We meekly opened doors
And hardly spoke at all.

The next year we were Juniors,
All full of confidence;
With grammar grim we struggled;
We learned to ride and fence.

As Junior-Mids we battled
With Caesar and the Gauls;
And much to our amazement,
Had Friday evening calls!

Returning the next autumn
We found Miss Hearsey here,
Whose smile was inspiration;
Who helped us through the year.

Our plays, so long-awaited,
Were given with success;
And then our yellow sweaters
Which we liked—more or less!

Soon came the prom and tea dance,
Oh! thou dear heart, be still.
And then our own class picnic
And bonfire on Poms hill.

Too soon, alas, 'twas our turn
To be the Seniors tall;
We got our longed-for parlor—
Our porch—and that's not all!

To Intervale we've been now;
To Boston for the day;
We've eaten at Baronial,
And had our Senior Play.

Oh moment full of triumph
When each received her ring!
What memories of Abbot
To her mind will it bring?

And now at last Commencement—
For larger lives we yearn,
And leave behind us school days
That never will return.

As Abbot we are leaving
We sigh for what is past;
For deepest pleasure is the theme
Of days that went too fast.

Marching Song

Come along and march with us who all agree
That Abbot's quite the place to be!
A century of school-girls surely can't be wrong,
Or we'd not be here to sing our song.
Hurry up and fall in step,
March with vigor, vim, and pep,
Throw your cares and worries to the breeze,
For — though Columbus and Cabot
Never heard of Abbot,
It's quite the place for you and me!

The Parting Hymn

Father, I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me;
The changes that are sure to come
I do not fear to see;
But I ask Thee for a present mind
Intent on pleasing Thee.

I ask Thee for a thoughtful love
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And to wipe the weeping eyes:
And a heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

Wherever in the world I am,
In whatsoe'er estate,
I have a fellowship of hearts
To keep and cultivate;
And a work of lowly love to do
For the Lord on whom I wait.

So I ask Thee for the daily strength
To none that ask denied,
And a mind to blend with outward life
While keeping at Thy side;
Content to fill a little space
If Thou be glorified.

ॐ नमो भगवते वासुदेवाय

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1938

We, the noble-minded and most intellectual class of Abbot Academy, in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, do with utmost sincerity bequeath our most cherished assets, as follows:

McBride's social tendencies to Mary Lee Crawford
Elise's speedy monologues to Bellows
Peck's energy to Winnie Wiglesworth
Diana's perpetual bluffing to Shirley Hamilton
Lee's week-ends to Bonnie Martin
Dooley's weight to Ginny Jones
Whit's self-discipline to Betty Jean
Lanky's meekness to Sadie Sawyer
Comstock's chemistry books to Oakman
Forsyth's ethereal aspirations to Audie
Susan Darling's effervescence to Mooney.

Now in a philanthropic state of mind we endow these worthy organizations as follows:

To the Salvation Army we present the Junior League (the aspiration of some of us)
To the dust chute our insipid, jaundiced sweaters
To the P. W. A. our Senior couches which we do not want
To the Senior-Mids all hash sessions (knowing full well they won't need them!)
To the Senior-Mids our master minds (although we know they don't want them!).

Finally, feeling that we would not be keeping our class unified without a few of our idiosyncrasies, we refuse to surrender our most distinguished possessions:

The conflagration of the "Bellevue" (what a view!)
The attraction of the "Normandie" for anyone who wants an extra two-weeks vacation
All memories of the eve of the Senior-Mid Plays (in Room No. 10).
"Frances Crassmore," who would be lost at Abbot without our invigorating influence
"Iulus" too, whom we take with us in our Class Book
Last but not least, our noticeable individuality in times of calamity.

Intervale Song

Sure a little bit of Heaven
Fell from out the sky one day,
And it nestled in New Hampshire
Not so many miles away;
And when the angels found it
Sure it looked so sweet and fair,
They said, "Suppose we leave it,
For it looks so peaceful there."
So they sprinkled it with sunshine
Just to make the pine trees grow
They're the finest ones that can be found
No matter where you go.
And they placed the mountains 'round it
Just to keep away the gale,
And when they had it finished,
Sure they called it Intervale!

Heard at Intervals

Hurry up, will you? Oh look at Lucy struggling with her suitcase! It's twice as big as she is!...Wait, I forgot something! Oh gosh, I know—my money's... Diana has taken so many pictures now, she won't have any films left!...Whee, here's the train!...Good-bye everybody!...What, a whole car to ourselves? Let's relax!...Hey Sutor, play "The Snake Charmer" again!...Oh dear—I've dropped some stitches—quick! Giny's...What scrumptious food! I'll swap you a marmalade for a lettuce!...What? We're here at last?...Some of you come in the car—others get in the bus...skating at night! What fun! And this cocoa—yum!...I'll take the hard bed. I could sleep on anything this P.M....It might...!

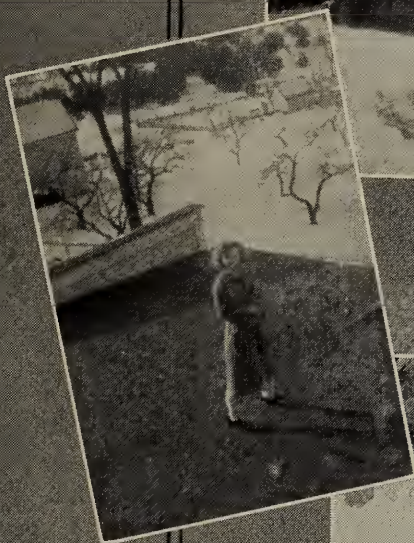

Oh! Those mountains! How lovely!...What pancakes! Home was never like this!...I've never seen such a steep toboggan—never! Miss Hearsey is the only one who dares go down!...This ice is super! Rice—show me how you do that figure eight!...How far is the ski-tow? Ask Susan—she's as far from it as she can get!...Hey Pudge, what are you doing in the brook?...Gee, this isn't a hill—it's a mountain!...Wish I had Appleby's spunk and Saunders' skill. Well, here goes nothing!...Dinner already? Are you going to "Rosalie" or the hockey game? I think I'll knit by the fire and turn in early. There's something about this mountain air!

Who's going up Mt. Surprise? I'll go, Maddie,—I've never had snow-shoes on before, but I'll try anything once!...I'm so tired—Charlie McCarthy and games sound just about my speed...Don't you adore "Winnie the Pooh"?...Let's finish up with the Goodnight Round, Pondo!..."Sweet rest descends to all."

Oh how I hate to leave this place!..."Oh the Emersons, to you we sing!"...Let's have a reunion next year! How about it, Liz?...Dover already? Billie, look! Is that your father?...Hey Plunkie, what rhymes with joy? "Boy, oh boy!"...Why, Peckus, you surprise me!...Gather round, one and all for a last song practice...Don't forget—dash into your sweaters and skirts and meet in the Senior Parlor!...Well, here's Andover!

The Freeman's Simpson

In England lived I long ago
Upon the Breckenridge,
High in the old Littauer
Beside the Duncan Bridge.

My father was a Hunter,
A Freeman of the King.
"But Lawson, you're a Simpson,"
Said he to me one spring.

My Rath aroused, I took my steed,
And galloped o'er the Lee.
"Just who's the Simp?" said I with scorn,
"We very soon shall see!"

I traveled many nights and days,
When Dooley I did Cross
A knight Walworth his armor as
He Saundered Toohey's hoss.

Forsyth Thayer was a steed of Brown,
The Peck of God's frey land.
The gallant knight did unTyer,
And faced me man to man.

Loring his eyes he looked me down,
He looked me up and said,
"I'll Holt with you a Tilton match,
Teichert, and you are dead."

We Fletcher swords with greatest vim,
Forman we both were mad.
Right quick I Plunkett into him,
"Hauser feel now?" I said.

The knight's bold face turned Greene with rage;
I Whittemore and more,
Till he fell down and did not Rice.
Hudson be quite done for.

I heard a Russell in the leaves.
It was a maiden fair,
Lancaster eyes upon the ground,
"I Sawyer fighting there.

It was my Sutor that you slew,
A man whom I did hate.
He was selected by the Vogt
Of all my father's state."

The maiden's eyes were tearful now,
"Don't Eveleighve me, sir!
Comstock my father's court with good,
To make up for that cur."

I Tucker in my arms and said,
"Oh Darling, be McBride?
There lives an Abbott o'er yon Pond,
I'll Coll him to our side."

"We have Tudbury him and take A Flaherty his grave,"
The maiden murmured with a sigh,
"Although he was a knave."

The Abbott came from o'er the Pond
To make us man and wife;
I sealed it with a Hotchkiss,
And now she's mine for life.

Easter Reverie

Ever white

Birch
At night
On Abbot ground
In Abbot arms
Shall wait
The resurrection day
For us
In
'38
When fifty years out
Back come the Combed
And croaky few
To sing
And Cackle
"The Class of '38

Marching On" —
Bravely face your future and your fate!

Important Events of 1937 - 1938

SEPTEMBER

- 28 — Last year at Abbot begins. Started finely — many new girls. Three new faculty members, Miss Rath, Miss Marston, Mr. Merritt.

FEBRUARY

- 1 — Mid-years began — we can smile now that they are far behind.
4 — Intervale at last!
19 — Senior-mid plays — guess we are leaving Mrs. Gray with good material.

OCTOBER

- 15 — Senior picnic at Haggett's pond — doing better than class of '37. Weather perfect.
23 — Memorial service to Miss Chickering.

MARCH

- 5 — Senior-mid and Senior tea dance.
11 — Griffin entertainment — gave illusion of a very un-prep-school environment.
19 — Little Women, our senior play of which we are justly proud.

NOVEMBER

- 15 — Field day — hockey game especially to be remembered.
Thanksgiving service and holiday.

APRIL

- 7 — Back from spring vacation.
17 — Easter evening service.
23 — Joint concert and dance between Fidelio and Gov. Dummer Glee Club.
29 — Prom week-end — no comments necessary.

DECEMBER

- 10 — A.D.S. plays.
11 — Children's Christmas party, exhausting as usual.
12 — Our last Christmas service.
17 — Home for Christmas vacation.

MAY

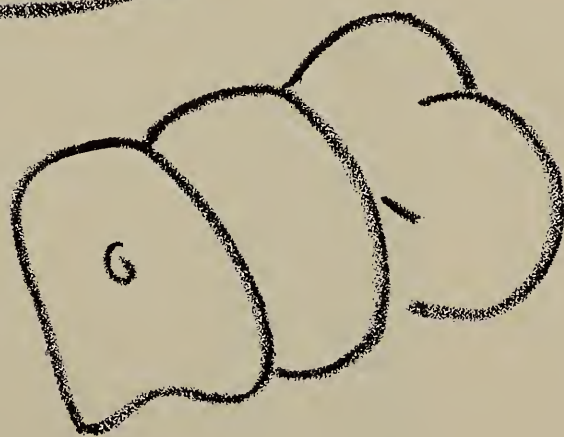

- 7 — Visitors' day — worth everyone's efforts.
12 — Society Banquet.
21 — Benefit Bazaar — $200 profit!
28 — Field Day.
Senior Banquet.

JANUARY

- 7 — Vacation ended — back for work and winter sports.

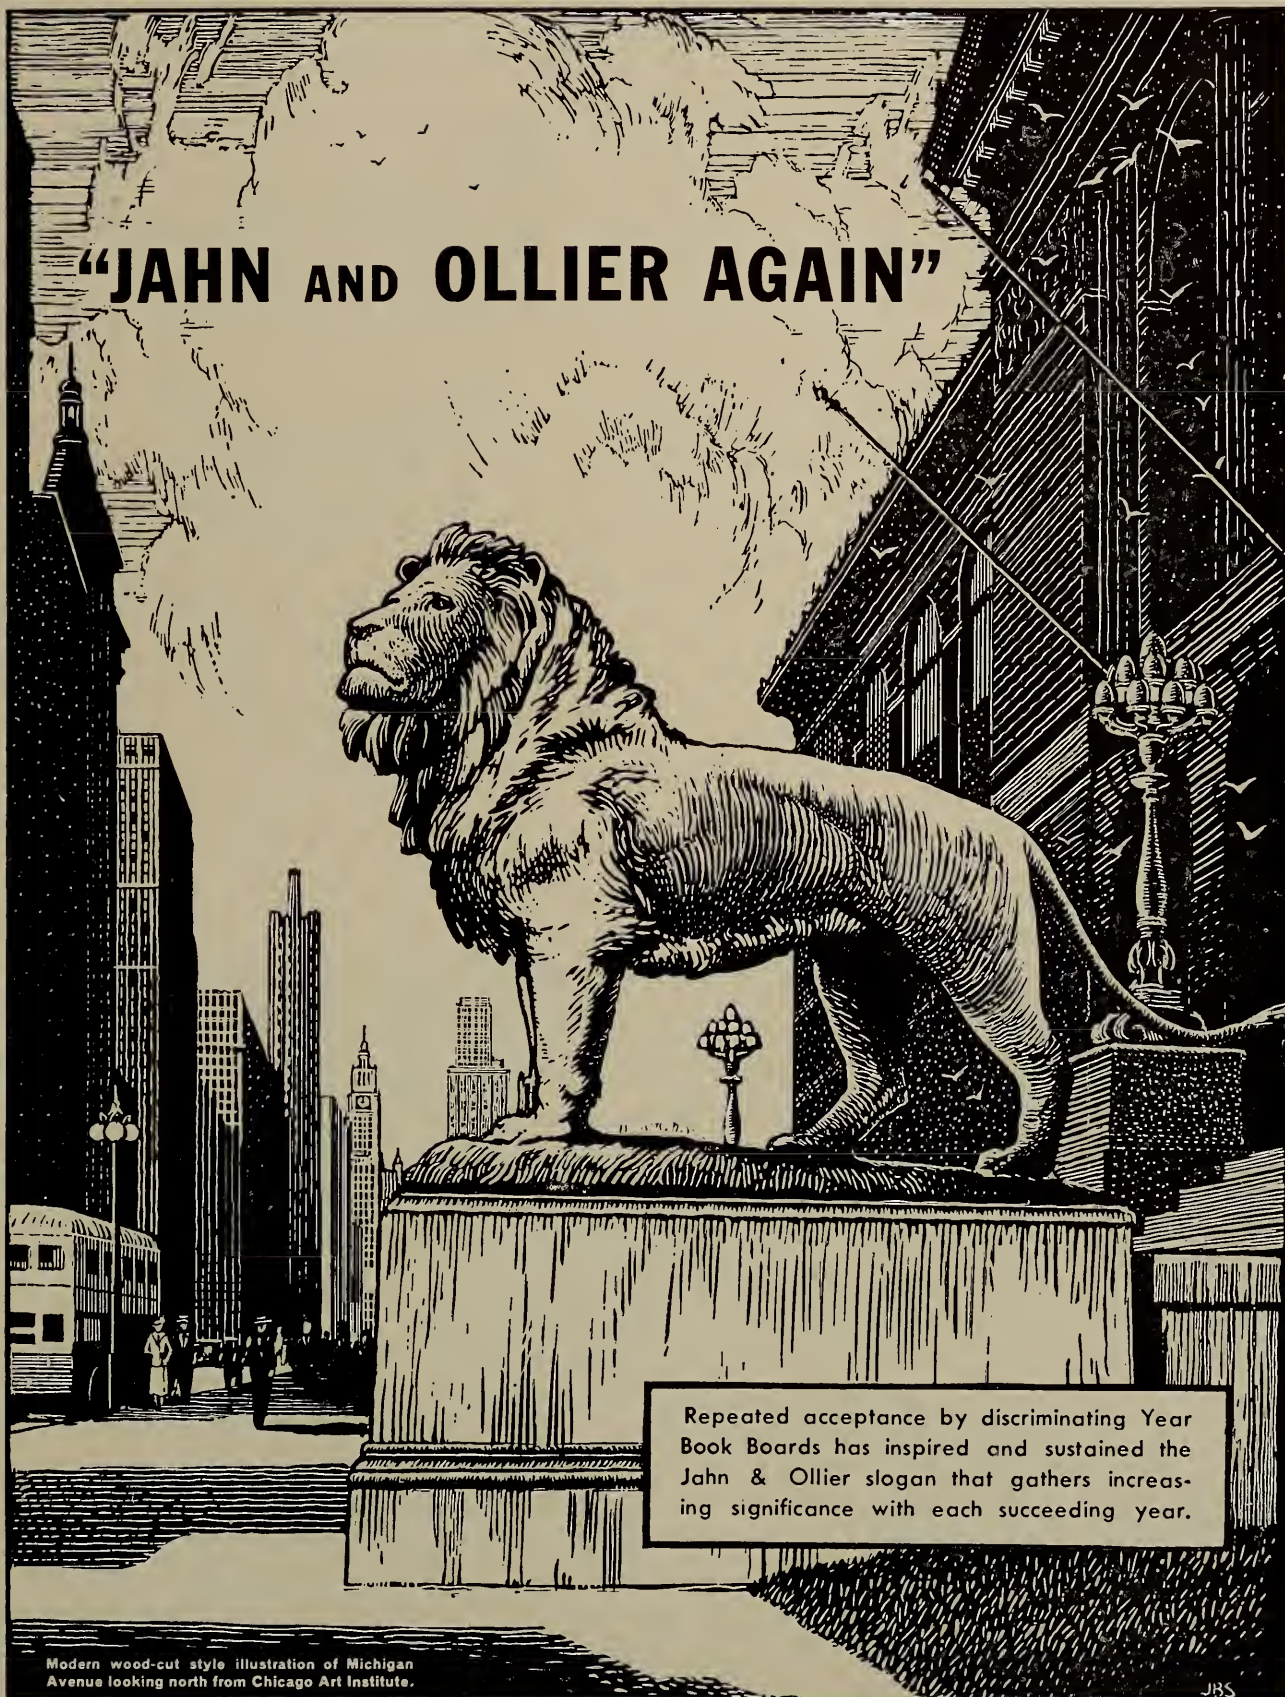

JUNE

- 3 — Rally night.
4 — Garden Party — Draper Dramatics.
5 — Baccalaureate service — Commencement concert.
6 — We graduate — Commencement service — tree planting.

"JAHN AND OLLIER AGAIN"

Modern wood-cut style illustration of Michigan Avenue looking north from Chicago Art Institute.

Repeated acceptance by discriminating Year Book Boards has inspired and sustained the Jahn & Ollier slogan that gathers increasing significance with each succeeding year.
